Faithful Scribe Report—Lou Hlad

- Sent out Monthly minutes of last meeting to all members.
- Sadly sent out deceased notices for Sir Knight Ed Trainor, Msgr. Donald Kiernan, and two family members of our Faithful Comptroller Rich Tomaszewski.
- Sent our prayer requests for Fred Dyer's grandson, Bob Klingensmith's wife, Abe Kassis' surgery, and B.J. Van Gundy's father.
- Sent out the instructions for registering on our revised web site to all members. Will be glad to do it again for anyone not receiving them. I encourage everyone to register on the Assembly web site.
- Sent out our congratulations to Mark McMullen, our past State Deputy, who has moved to New Haven, CT. to become a Executive Vice President of the Supreme Council in charge of membership and fraternal services.. He responded to me with gracious thanks. He is in charge of everything not insurance-related and is basically number two to Carl Anderson.

Ad Hoc Widows Committee—Lou Hlad

- One widow played Bingo for free this month.
- Sadly added Colleen Trainor to our widow email database.
- Worked with Assembly webmaster Anita Mitchell to update any changing data.

Membership Committee—Wulf Lindenau

We have one prospective Assembly member, Dan Anderson, of All Saints. He will enter on February 17 at Holy Family on Lower Roswell Road in Marietta.

It was mentioned by our Faithful Comptroller that we had no yet voted him into the Assembly. A vote was held on that formality was taken care of.

Web Site Report—Bob Mitchell

Only 20 people have registered for the web site which is 10%. Ten of the registered are officers. One trustee, Chuck Langgood, has not registered (laughter).

Bob encouraged everyone to register. Call Bob if only problems are encountered.

The web site is KC2688.org. Lou will send out the instructions again. Bob asked for photos from anyone who sends him photos.

Patriotic Committee—Jon Bird/Bob Santos

Jon mentioned that this is the weekend for wreathes being put on graves in Marietta by the Heritage Girls of St. Andrew. He wanted to make sure that our $500 donation has been received by them in time. Apparently the check was put in their group mail box.

Bob Santos opined that he had spoken to an executive on that Peachtree Corners Veterans Committee and learned this information.

The new Memorial Garden Park will be part of the new Peachtree Corners Town Center which will include a City Hall, a Performing Arts Center, retail shops, and the memorial garden. The garden will cost 1/2 million dollars and will be financed in part by the sale of engraved paver bricks like Centennial Olympic Park. They hope to have it completed by next Veterans Day.

They would love to have an honor guard for the dedication. This would be a great opportunity for the Assembly to make a donation or purchase a brick. Smallest brick paver is $250 and the largest is $1,000. Santos will purchase a paver in honor of Mary Our Queen Council and their first Grand Knight, Lloyd Addison.

The park will include statues or remembrances for the Army, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and a Minuteman memorial. There will be a great Grand Eagle statue on a globe in the center. American, Georgia, and Peachtree Corner City flags will be featured. Interactive displays will be run by computer apps. Four benches will be provided. The web site is ptcvets.net.

Chalice Committee Report - (Ed Pierson)

Ed Pierson and Rich Tomaszewski had a very beneficial lunch with Fr. Bradley Starr. He is very busy at St. Patrick Parish. He is interested in a travel chalice and we can move forward since he is a priest. Because he had met our deceased Fr. Joseph Peek, it would be appropriate for Fr. Starr to be awarded a Fr. Peek travel chalice. It will not be awarded until January because of his busy schedule. Ed mentioned that it seems as if most chalice candidates seem to be more interested in travel chalices.

Ed had lunch also with Father John Klein who became a priest on December 16 in Rome. A chalice can not be presented to him until January at the earliest. He also wants a travel chalice. Ed and Rich visited the Legionaires Home on Spalding Drive.

Ed was referred by Deacon Klein to Deacon Michael Metz who also needs a travel chalice because he will become a military chaplain. He will not be ordained until June 2018. We also have our RSVP candidate Jack Knight in line for a chalice next June. Metz also named Deacon Mike Bremer, and Deacon Carlos Ortega as needing chalices eventually.

We will need additional chalices because of the sad backlog we now have. If we present a solitary chalice for a priest, we now have potential names for five additional chalices. If these become travel chalices which only contain two names each, we will need more chalices. The cost for these chalices will extend into the next budget cycle.

- Presented to Fr. Ceballos, a travel chalice with the names:
Anthony Allan Kosek passed 12.25.2014 (All Saints)
Charles J. Robinson passed 12.30.2014 (St. Andrew)

Trustee Report - Dave Mason

No report

Social Committee Report—Nick Mattera

No events are planned. He had planned to hold it at Aldo's for $18, but the owner would not budge. Carbonara was suggested, since the owner is an All Saints knight. There is no way he would do it even for $30. Hlad has inquired.

Nick Mattera stated that in New Jersey the Assembly held an appreciation dinner for the priests and clergy of their councils. He opined that it might be a good idea to smooth out any problems that might be happening with the clergy. We could sell tickets and invite parishioners.

Unfinished Business—Bob Santos

His talk about the new Memorial Park in Peachtree Corners is detailed under the Patriotic Report. Bob made a motion to provide $250 for the purchase of a brick paver for the park. The motion was passed unanimously.

New Business — Nick Mattera

FN passed around a paper that outlined all the committees that need volunteers to have brothers sign up.

He mentioned that funds would be needed for our charities. He asked if a Casino Night would be a possible way to raise funds. He asked everyone to think about it.

FN mentioned that he has been approached by the Phoenix Foundation for another donation. Bob Webster opined that this is a small group that sends all their donations to targeted groups. This will be the work of the charity committee being formed.

Bob Santos mentioned that the Georgia State Charity organization is soliciting donations for their wheel chairs, military chaplains funds, and many others. All donations are tax deductible if anyone is looking for such deductions. A letter will be received by all brothers. Consider.
